DORIS KAVCIC OF VITALUX – THE SECRET TO HER SUCCESS!

While recently walking through the city of Marbella, Doris Kavcic, owner of Residencias Lujosas Vitalux, asked herself, “Crisis? What crisis?” She notes that times have changed in Marbella and the real estate industry has gone through a difficult period, “but the streets are bustling with people, the restaurants and shops are as crowded as ever and the demand for properties has experienced immense growth”.

Vitalux opened eight years ago and, according to Doris, “The timing of the company’s launch in early 2009 was a deliberately daring one during an extremely difficult year. However, success has won-out. We had a well thought-out concept plus the feeling for the right moment and now the company is celebrating its eighth anniversary and, at the same time, 18 years of sector affiliation.”
